ACCOUNTING SERVICES

May 1, 1997

I joined ASWA in 1967, and in the ensuing 30 years have received more than I can ever repay.

First there's the joy of friendship:

Heloise Canter -- my mentor -- from whom I learned how to lead a meeting, for she did it with such style and grace.

Elisabeth Castro -- There's no one with whom I'd rather giggle. Presidents give us the evil-eye during meetings and we love it!

Greta Hicks -- a master of "warm fuzzies". She just makes me feel good.

Then there's knowledge and the sharing of it.

And lastly, there's fun:

A bunch of us went for fast food during a Joint Annual Meeting, and each told the order taker that her name was Jennifer. The joke was on us. When dinner was ready, nobody knew which meal belonged to which "Jennifer".
